Dear colleagues and collaborators,

We invite you to contribute with your articles to issue 2/2025 of the Social Work Review (http://www.swreview.ro/index.pl/home\_en), a scientific journal indexed by BDI (ProQuest, EBSCO, Social Work Abstracts, CEEOL, Index Copernicus, SCIPRO, GESIS, IBSS, Erih + and accredited B + by CNCSIS), published by the University of Bucharest, Faculty of Sociology and Social Work in partnership with Polirom Publishing House. It is intended to be a means of disseminating research, good practice, experiences in the field of social work, but also policies, serving as a tool for social change.

Issue 2/2025, dedicated to the topic of Social work in a superdiverse society, is edited by Professor Cosmin Goian, PhD, Lecturer Loredana Marcela Trancă, PhD and Junior lecturer Florina Luiza Vlaicu, PhD, from the Social Work Department of the West University of Timișoara. The challenges that superdiversity poses to social workers, in a social context that has been transformed by a pandemic, war, migration, economic crises and political changes, open new ways of approach in professional practice. We welcome innovative articles in English and/or Romanian, research, critical reflections on policies, practices and their implications for social workers and practitioners in fields related to social work. The topics of this issue cover, but are not limited to: current social policies; national, regional, county or local development strategies and programs in the social field; the protection and promotion of the rights of vulnerable groups; addressing social inequities; social inclusion of marginalized and discriminated groups; methods, techniques and working tools in the practice of social work; risk assessment and intervention in crisis situations; digitalization in the practice of social work; ethics and values in social work; management of social services; education and continuous training of social workers; representing the social worker profession.
